

REQUESTED RELIEF

Ali Choudhri seeks to compel the testimony of Omar Khawaja at the hearing on Mr. Choudhri's Motion to Disqualify/Recuse Judge Jeffrey P. Norman. Mr. Khawaja has personal knowledge of Judge Norman's bias against Mr. Choudhri and can provide testimony as to extrajudicial statements that Judge Norman made to him regarding Mr. Choudhri's reputation in the community as a "fraudster." See Exhibit A, September 11, 2024, Deposition of Omar Khawaja. This evidence clearly speaks to Judge Norman's bias against Mr. Choudhri and is therefore highly relevant to Mr. Choudhri's case-in-chief. Additionally, Mr. Khawaja has no legal reason not to appear and provide testimony or to otherwise withhold any testimony from the Court. Accordingly, the Court should compel Mr. Khawaja's presence at the hearing to provide testimony. Moreover, Mr. Khawaja was previously served with process and appeared at the hearing on this matter on December 9, 2024. See Exhibit B, Transcript from December 20, 2024 Hearing. As Mr. Khawaja has previously appeared at this hearing, the Court has authority to order his presence at subsequent continuations of this matter.

Furthermore, Ali Choudhri has employed the services of a process server, Larry White, to find and serve witness Omar Khawaja to appear at the hearing. As mentioned, Omar Khawaja has key facts relevant to Judge Norman's bias against Ali Choudhri. Based on representations of Mr. White, Omar Khawaja is intentionally avoiding service of process. See Exhibit C, Affidavit of Larry White. Apparently, Mr. Khawaja is aware that Mr. White is attempting to lawfully serve him, but Mr. Khawaja has engaged in evasive action to avoid being served. In fact, Mr. Khawaja's wife informed Mr. White that Mr. Khawaja is aware Mr. White is trying to find him for purposes of effectuating service of process, but that her husband is intentionally avoiding him. Mr. Khawaja's testimony is very important to establish extrajudicial conduct demonstrating Judge Norman's bias against Ali Choudhri, and without this testimony Mr. Choudhri will not be able to adequately put on his case-in-chief.

PRAYER

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, Ali Choudhri respectfully requests that the Court grant Mr. Choudhri's Second (Renewed) Emergency Motion to Compel the Testimony of Omar Khawaja and order Mr. Khawaja to appear and provide testimony at the hearing on Mr. Choudhri's Motion to Disqualify/Recuse Judge Jeffrey P. Norman.

Respectfully submitted,

Isl Ali Choudhri
